Appellate Case No. 2024-000524

ORDER

This appeal arises out of a circuit court order dated March 12, 2024, granting the receiver's motions to compel discovery. This case consolidates notices of appeal from Appellants Mohed Altrad and Altrad Investment Authority SAS, Appellants ArranCo US, LLC, Hawk Bidco (US) Inc., and Sparrows Offshore LLC, and Appellants Charter Consolidated Ltd., ESAB Corporation, and Central Mining & Investment Corporation Ltd., all of which are appealing from the circuit court's March 12, 2024 order. Respondent Peter D. Protopapas, acting as receiver for Cape PLC, individually and as successor in interest to Cape Asbestos Company Limited, filed a motion to dismiss. Appellants filed returns objecting to the motion to dismiss, and Protopapas filed a reply.

Appellants characterize the circuit court's action as refusal to enter an injunction. Upon careful review, the order on appeal should be characterized as an order granting the receiver's motions to compel discovery. After consideration of all submissions by the parties, the motion to dismiss is granted. See Grosshuesch v. Cramer, 377 S.C. 12, 30, 659 S.E.2d 112, 122 (2008) ("[D]iscovery orders, in general, are interlocutory and are not immediately appealable because they do not, within the meaning of the appealability statute, involve the merits of the action or affect a substantial right."); Davis v. Parkview Apartments, 409 S.C. 266, 280, 762 S.E.2d 535, 543 (2014) ("[T]o challenge the specific rulings of the discovery orders, the normal course is to refuse to comply, suffer contempt, and appeal from the contempt finding."); Hamm v. S.C. Pub. Serv. Comm'n, 312 S.C. 238, 241, 439 S.E.2d 852, 853 (1994) (holding discovery orders are interlocutory and not immediately appealable). The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
