Appellate Case No. 2024-001862

ORDER

This appeal arises out of a scheduling order of the circuit court setting timelines for the completion of discovery in anticipation of trial. The appeal is dismissed because the order on appeal is not immediately appealable.¹ See Ex parte Wilson, 367 S.C. 7, 13, 625 S.E.2d 205, 208 (2005) (noting a discovery order is not a final order pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §14-3-330 (2017) because it leaves some further act to be done by the court before the rights of the parties are determined); Grosshuesch v. Cramer, 377 S.C. 12, 30, 659 S.E.2d 112, 122 (2008) ("[D]iscovery orders, in general, are interlocutory and are not immediately appealable because they do not, within the meaning of the appealability statute, involve the merits of the action or affect a substantial right."); Hamm v. S.C. Pub.

¹ Based on the disposition herein, we decline to rule upon the appellants' motions for consolidation with Appellate Case No. 2024-001446.

Serv. Comm'n, 312 S.C. 238, 241, 439 S.E.2d 852, 853 (1994) (holding discovery orders are interlocutory and not immediately appealable). The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.
