Re: Jennifer L. Browning v. Kimberly Thomason
Appellate Case No. 2026-001782 (Consolidated)

To Whom It May Concern:

I represent Appellants Kimberly Thomason, Devon Puriefoy, Desa Ballard, Mayra Michalski, Luis Michalski, and Margaret Miniard ("Responding Appellants") in this matter. We are in receipt of the Court's September 1, 2026, letter from Jasmine D. Smith, concerning the ordering of transcripts among other topics.

I am writing to advise the Court that, before the Notices of Appeal were filed and served, Responding Appellants had already obtained following transcripts: (a) January 12, 13, 14, and 16, 2026, before the Honorable Eugene C. Griffith, Jr.; (b) March 14, 2025, before the Honorable Eugene C. Griffith, Jr.; and (c) September 25, 2024, before the Honorable Jessica A. Salvini. In light of this, Responding Appellants believe that they do not need to submit an order for any transcripts in this appeal.

Rule 208(a)(1), S.C.R.A.P., provides that "[w]ithin thirty (30) days after receiving the transcript or, if no transcript is ordered, within thirty (30) days after serving the notice of appeal, appellant shall serve one copy of his brief on all parties to the appeal, and file with the clerk of the appellate court one copy of the brief with proof of service." As a result, Appellants' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter for Inclusion in the Record on Appeal are currently due to be served by September 10, 2026. Responding Appellants have moved, with the consent of counsel, for a 30-day extension of time to file and serve their Initial Brief and Designation of Matter.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. I have copied this correspondence with the Court to counsel of record to their AIS email addresses.

Respectfully,

s/John W. Fletcher
