Re: Robert Graham, Jr, 178039 v SCDC(2)

Appellant case No. 2025-00241

(Clerk)

Dear Madam Jasmine D. Smith, Deputy
Counsel is in receipt of your Aug.
27, 2026 (notice), requesting filing of initial brief of respondent, designation of matter - within ten (10) days. There is apparently, major substantial procedural inadvertence this court received by my records July 09, 2026, Initial Brief of Appellant received Jun 10, 2026 by court of appeals clerk file.

further, respondents copy was placed in the mail, if there is issue further - with Christine Catoe Bigelow, maintaining she didn't receive her copy it's due to as this court is aware - part of counsel litigation proffered in this case is mail not reaching appellant or not reaching forwarded address from Proud River. Thus, Rule 208 or 240 is improperly invoked. Since defendants has created a hurdle for counsel to serve certified notices to Ms: Christine Bigelow by not allowing funds into his account pending approval from new created policy - I would then request courts indulgence due to know fault of (appellant). Hence, the appeal cannot proceed with ~~out~~ initial brief designation.

Very truly yours
