Edward Powers, Jr., Barbara Brunson, individual, Family
Services, Inc., d/b/a Origin SC, as Conservator for Robert
E. Powers, Jr., Caprice Atterbury, as an individual, Traci Strickland, as an individual, Leslie P. Taylor, as Guardian for Robert E. Powers, Jr., Leslie P. Taylor, individual, Attorney Brian Dumas, individual, and Attorney Brandon Keith Poston, individual, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2026-000263

ORDER

After careful consideration of the motions to reconsider,¹ which the court construes as petitions to rehear the dismissal, the court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petitions for rehearing are denied.²

J.

¹ Appellant has filed a motion to reconsider as to each circuit court order appealed, despite the appeals being consolidated.

² To the extent Jennifer D. Powers requests oral argument on the motion to reconsider, that request is denied. Otherwise, the court takes no action on the request for oral argument in light of the denial of the motion to reconsider.
