I need to call them again to cancel it.
They couldn't cancel it before

I've just got an update it should it get the magistrate court today. The courts just drag their feet. This should have been sent to the magistrates court by now.

Dear Michelle.

You can go ahead and withdraw the appeal to stay.
Once that is done send us the paperwork and we will withdraw the writ.

Thanks

Hi Michelle,

I called the Magistrates office and they said that they cannot touch the writ until the higher appeal court dismisses the appeal first. They advised that you should take the appeal back and than once that is done, they can dismiss the writ.
You can check with them.
Thanks
