

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Derell D. Wiggins, Petitioner,¹

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2026-000940

ORDER

Following the dismissal of his application for post-conviction relief (PCR), Petitioner filed a pro se notice of appeal with this Court. The Court dismissed the appeal after Petitioner failed to provide the proof of ordering the transcript as required by Rules 207 and 243(b), SCACR.

Petitioner has moved for the reinstatement of his appeal. Despite this Court's instructions, Petitioner has not provided this Court and the Office of Court Administration with proof that he has made satisfactory payment arrangements for the transcript with the court reporter.

We find Petitioner has not shown good cause for his continued failure to comply with Rules 207 and 243(b), SCACR. Accordingly, the motion to reinstate the appeal is denied. See Rule 260(a), SCACR (providing that when a petitioner fails to comply with the appellate court rules, the clerk shall issue an order of dismissal and that a case shall not be reinstated except by leave of the Court, upon good cause shown, after notice to all parties). The remittitur shall be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.
