Emergency Stay/Supersedeas - Urgent

Thank you for confirming receipt of my filings. I need to confirm the status of my emergency motion for stay/supersedeas. I have been served with a writ of ejectment and the sheriff is currently at the property. Has my emergency stay request been presented to a judge, and has any stay order been entered?

Thank you,

Marthina Wardlaw

Dear Catherine,

Please find the attached documents to completely correct both administrative deficiencies noted in your letter dated September 15, 2026, for Appellate Case No. 2026-002037.

CRITICAL EMERGENCY REQUEST: I WAS JUST SERVED A WRIT OF EJECTMENT TODAY.

A process server was just dispatched directly to my porch by the lower court clerk and officially served me with a 24-hour Writ of Ejectment. Because my 24-hour clock is running right now, I face an immediate and irreversible lockout.

The lower Magistrate Court Chief Clerk, Sheila Gardner, is a first cousin to the Respondent/Landlord (Martin Gilliard) and is rushing this physical eviction specifically to bypass your active appellate jurisdiction before a stay can be processed.

My appellate packet is now 100% complete with the attached Form 4 Judgment and Form 7 Proof of Service sheets. Please manually pull this email and present it to an appellate judge immediately today so an Emergency Temporary Stay of Execution can be signed to stop the Georgetown County Sheriff from locking me out tomorrow morning.

Respectfully submitted,
Marthina Wardlaw
