Re: Kong Jian Lin v. Lin Yi Tong (Tony Lin)
Appeal No. 2025-001184

Dear Clerk of Court:

I respectfully write to ask whether the Court can provide me with an estimated timeline for my appeal.

I understand from the Court's September 3, 2026 response that I should wait for the Court's decision. I respect the Court's instructions and understand that the Clerk's Office cannot predict or control the Court's decision.

However, I respectfully ask whether the Court can provide any approximate timeframe for when my appeal may be reviewed or decided.

My situation has now continued for a very long time:

- * I first reported the underlying matter on July 5, 2023. More than three years have passed.
 - * I filed my appeal on June 13, 2025. More than one year and three months have passed.
 - * I submitted my final appellate materials on April 3, 2026. More than five months have passed.
- I am a citizen of South Carolina and the person seeking relief in this case. I also have a serious heart condition. The continuing uncertainty and lengthy waiting period are very difficult for me.

I understand that the Court has many cases and that every case requires appropriate consideration. I am not asking the Clerk's Office to influence the Court's decision.

I respectfully ask only:

Can the Court provide an estimated or approximate timeframe for when my appeal may be considered or decided?

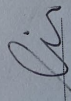

For example, should I expect to wait approximately another month, several months, a year or longer?

Because of my age and heart condition, time is very important to me. Human life is limited. I respectfully ask the Court to please provide whatever scheduling information it is permitted to provide.

Thank you for your time, consideration, and assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

Kong Jian Lin
Appellant, Pro Se
