Re: Sawyer v. Vacation Inspirations, Appellate Case No. 2026-000910

Judges of the Court of Appeals,

Appellants respectfully submit this letter in response to the Court's September 16, 2026 letter concerning the service deadline for the Record on Appeal under Rule 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. I would like to assure the Court any oversight was unintentional, as it was Appellant's understanding that the service deadline was not until September 21, 2026 based upon Rule 420(b). As the Court is aware, the Respondents filed a Motion to Dismiss on June 24, 2026, along with their Initial Brief. Therefore, Appellants understood the service deadline for the Record on Appeal was stayed pending the Court's consideration of and ruling on the Motion to Dismiss. Based upon the August 21, 2026 ruling on that motion, Appellants understood the thirty (30) days for service of the Record on Appeal under Rule 210 commenced on that same date and, as a result, the deadline was September 21, 2026.

Based upon my call to Emily Heid to clarify the application of Rule 420(b) on the service deadline, I was informed that the computer-generated deadline likely was incorrect and the estimated September 21, 2026 service date was accurate. Mrs. Heid asked that I submit this letter to request instruction from the Court on how to proceed. Please accept this letter as my request for confirmation that the service deadline for the Record on Appeal is September 21, 2026 or other instruction on how Appellants should proceed.

Sincerely,

David Wolf (on behalf of myself and Abigail Saunders)
