Dear Emily/ Clerk of the South Carolina Court of Appeals:

We are writing regarding Appeal Nos. 2025-001299 and 2026-001187 and the Court's September 15, 2026, Order consolidating these appeals.

We respectfully request clarification and, if appropriate, correction of the C-Track docket information following the Court's Order.

Our understanding of the September 15 Order is that the two appeals have been consolidated and will proceed under Appeal No. 2025-001299, and that Dorchester County has been recognized as a party in that consolidated appeal.

However, C-Track presently appears to show both Appeal No. 2025-001299 and Appeal No. 2026-001187 as "Ended."

If Appeal No. 2026-001187 was administratively closed because it was consolidated into Appeal No. 2025-001299, we understand why No. 2026-001187 would show has ended.

We are concerned, however, that Appeal No. 2025-001299 also appears as ended even though it is the surviving consolidated appeal.

Additionally, the caption for Appeal No. 2025-001299 does not yet appear to reflect Dorchester County as a party, consistent with the Court's September 15, 2026, Order.

We therefore respectfully ask the Clerk's Office to review the docket and advise:

1. Whether Appeal No. 2025-001299 should remain active as the surviving consolidated appeal;
2. Whether the "Ended" status presently displayed for Appeal No. 2025-001299 is an administrative entry that needs to be updated; and
3. Whether Dorchester County will be added to the caption and party information for Appeal No. 2025-001299 pursuant to the September 15 Order.

We are not requesting reconsideration of the Court's Order or raising an issue concerning the merits of the appeal.

We are simply requesting clarification and correction, if necessary, so that the public docket and caption accurately reflect the Court's September 15, 2026, Order.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,

Attia Elbadawy and Lynne Chatlos
