SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I am writing regarding Appellate Case No. 2026-000306.

I have been hospitalized since Tuesday, September 8, 2026, and I have not been feeling well since August 31, 2026. Despite my present medical condition, I am attempting to conduct my affairs and protect my appellate rights from my hospital room.

Because of my illness and the circumstances under which I am presently handling this matter, I inadvertently transmitted the wrong document at approximately 11:08 a.m.

Please disregard the document that I transmitted at 11:08 a.m. and replace it with the correct filing attached to this email.

The correct filing is:

Verified Sworn Testimony of Facts for the Record and on the Record, and Request for Restoration, including Exhibit A

This attached document is the filing that I intend to submit and have received as my filing in Appellate Case No. 2026-000306.

I sincerely apologize for any confusion caused by my earlier transmission. I am doing my best to continue managing this appellate matter while hospitalized and not feeling well.

I respectfully ask that the 11:08 a.m. document be disregarded and that the attached corrected filing be accepted in its place.

Thank you for your understanding and assistance.

Respectfully,

Nikia Renee Noisette
