Dear Ms. Galanti,

Thank you for your response and for providing the cost estimates.

Could you please confirm which payment methods you accept, including whether electronic payment is available? If payment must be made by check or money order, please confirm the exact payee name.

Also, how will the completed transcript be delivered? I would prefer to receive it as a PDF by email at Cami5788@yahoo.com, if available.

Thank you for your help.

Best regards,
Camelia Socite

Goodf afternoon, Ms. Socite,

I was your court reporter in Edgefield on July 20th, 2026, and I'll be happy to prepare you a transcript in the matter of Camelia Socite v. Mandarich Law Group. I apologize for your wait; I hadn't received any notification of a transcript request prior to today. I estimate 21 pages for this transcript. At the regular, 60-day rate, that cost would come to $89.25, and at the expedited, 7-day rate, that cost would come to $152.25. You can send payment for your preferred rate to the following address:

Sarah Galanti
PO Box 292
Pickens, SC 29671

Let me know if you need anything else in the meantime.

All best,
Sarah Galanti

Dear Ms. Galanti,

I have now been informed that you were the court reporter for the July 20, 2026 hearing in Edgefield County, C/A No. 2025-CP-19-00353, Camelia Socite v. Mandarich Law Group, LLP, et al.

I am adding you to this correspondence regarding my transcript request submitted to Court Administration on September 2, 2026. The related appeal is No. 2026-001966.

Please confirm whether the original request was forwarded to you and provide any required deposit, payment instructions, and the anticipated delivery date. I remain ready to make payment arrangements promptly.

The original request and completed SCCA800 form are reattached. I continue to request the entire July 20 hearing, with regular delivery.

Please reply all so Court Administration, the appellate clerk, and counsel receive the update.

Thank you,

Camelia Socite

Court Administration / Assigned Court Reporter or Transcriptionist:

I am following up on my September 2, 2026 request for the transcript of the entire July 20, 2026 hearing in Edgefield County, C/A No. 2025-CP-19-00353. The related appeal is docketed as No. 2026-001966.

I have not received an acknowledgment, the assigned reporter's or transcriptionist's contact information, or payment instructions.

Please confirm receipt and routing of my original request and provide:

1. The name and contact information of the assigned reporter or transcriptionist;
2. Any required deposit, accepted payment method, and payment deadline; and
3. The anticipated transcript delivery date.

I remain ready to make the required payment arrangements promptly upon receiving instructions. This is a follow-up to my original September 2 order for regular delivery, not a new or replacement request.

For convenience, I have reattached the original transmittal and completed SCCA800 form. Please reply to all recipients so the parties and appellate clerk receive the status update.

Thank you,

Attached are Camelia Socite's Rule 207 transmittal and completed SCCA 800 form ordering the transcript of the entire July 20, 2026 hearing in Edgefield County.
The appeal was filed on September 2, 2026. The court reporter is presently unknown. Please route this request to the assigned court reporter, transcriptionist, or WebEx/DCRP custodian.
This is a firm order for regular 60-day delivery, not a request for a quote. Please acknowledge receipt within five business days and provide the responsible transcriptionist's name, estimated page count, required deposit, accepted payment method, and payment deadline so that written payment arrangements may be completed promptly.
Respectfully,
Camelia Socite
