RE: Brenda Tyndall v. Nissan Motor Co., LTD
Appellate Case No. 2026-001964

Dear Ms. Harrison and Ms. Evans-Pryor,

In response to the Court's September 8, 2026 letter in the above appeal, I write as follows below

Jonathan Schulz paid the $250.00 fee for pro hac admission, and the South Carolina Supreme Court received his application on June 23, 2026.

Appellant's Notice of Appeal listed Jonathan Schulz as admitted pro hac vice. Undersigned has since learned from trial counsel that Mr. Schulz's order on pro hac admission was not signed by the trial court. Instead, the trial court recognized Mr. Schulz as a lawyer. (See attached portion of the trial transcript).

At this stage, we have the following options:

1. Omit Mr. Schulz from the signature block going forward. Mr. Schulz is our client. He will not be arguing in this matter. He was listed, in retrospect, by mistake by undersigned as new counsel, believing the pro hac order was signed by the trial court. This is the easiest solution.
2. Ask the trial court to sign the pro hac order and provide it to this Court.
3. Seek pro hac admission from this Court, now, via separate motion. The $250.00 fee was paid on June 23, 2026.
4. This Court can accept the attached trial transcript as the trial court's order.

Undersigned conferred with John Nichols, counsel for Respondent. Mr. Nichols consents to any of these options.

We intend to comply with any determination by the Clerk's Office or the Court. We have met all deadlines necessary to perfect this appeal and will gladly correct this administrative oversight with one of the above solutions.

Very truly yours,
