SC Court of Appeals

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Angel Jackson ET AL., appearing pro se, hereby appeals to the South Carolina Court of Appeals from the Form 4 Judgment in a Civil Case entered by the Jasper County Court of Common Pleas on July 10, 2026, which dismissed Appellant's Rule 60 b (4) motion from the Magistrate Court.

The judgment states that Appellant Angel Jackson's July 23, 2025 motion from the Magistrate Court came before the Court of Common Pleas on July 9, 2026. The Circuit Court stated that, after reviewing the appeal, the Magistrate's Return, it was of the opinion that the Magistrate had jurisdiction. The Circuit Court therefore dismissed Appellant's Rule 60 b (4) motion and determined that Appellant's motion to submit audio transcript from the Magistrate Courts initial eviction hearing was moot.

This Notice of Appeal is timely. Appellant received written notice of entry of the July 10, 2026 Judgment on August 6, 2026. Under Rule 203(b)(1), SCACR, a notice of appeal from the Court of Common Pleas must be served within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of entry of the order or judgment. The thirtieth day fell on Saturday, September 5, 2026, followed by Sunday, September 6, 2026, and the Labor Day holiday on Monday, September 7, 2026. Accordingly, service on September 8, 2026, is timely.

Appellant therefore serves this Notice of Appeal on September 8, 2026, within the time prescribed by the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Appellant seeks review of the July 10, 2026 Judgment, including the following issues:

1. Whether the Circuit Court erred in concluding that the Magistrate Court had jurisdiction where the Magistrate's Return contained no lease agreement or other documentation establishing the legal basis for the Magistrate Court's jurisdiction over the underlying property dispute.
2. Whether the Circuit Court erred in concluding that the Magistrate Court had jurisdiction where the materials contained in the Magistrate's Return included a Notice to Quit the premises but did not establish the existence of a lease, landlord-tenant relationship, or other jurisdictional basis sufficient to establish the Magistrate Court's authority to adjudicate the underlying dispute.
3. Whether the Circuit Court erred by failing to adequately address the absence of evidence in the Magistrate's Return establishing the jurisdictional basis for the Magistrate Court's proceeding before dismissing Appellant's appeal.
4. Whether the Circuit Court erred by failing to address the material jurisdictional issues raised by Appellant concerning the authority of the Magistrate Court to adjudicate the underlying property dispute.
5. Whether the Circuit Court failed to address multiple due process concerns raised by Appellant concerning the underlying Magistrate Court proceedings.
6. Whether the Circuit Court failed to address whether Appellant was afforded the due process required before the Magistrate Court exercised jurisdiction and entered its decision.
7. Whether the Circuit Court erred in determining that Appellant's motion seeking additional information from the Magistrate was moot where the requested information was relevant to determining whether the Magistrate Court possessed a valid jurisdictional basis for the underlying proceeding.
8. Whether the Circuit Court's conclusion that the Magistrate Court had jurisdiction was legally and factually insufficient because the Judgment did not identify the evidence establishing that jurisdiction or adequately address the material jurisdictional and due process concerns presented by Appellant.
9. Whether the Circuit Court erred in dismissing Appellants' appeal without adequately addressing the material issues presented concerning the Magistrate Court's jurisdiction and the due process afforded to Appellants.

Appellant expressly preserves all issues properly raised and ruled upon in the Circuit Court proceedings and all grounds for appellate review arising from the July 10, 2026 Judgment.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that the South Carolina Court of Appeals review the July 10, 2026 Judgment and grant such relief as the Court determines to be just and proper.

Respectfully submitted, this 18th day of September, 2026,

Angel S. A. Jackson

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Appellant, Angel Jackson, received written notice of entry of the July 10, 2026 Judgment of the Jasper County Court of Common Pleas on August 6, 2026.

Pursuant to Rule 203(b)(1), South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, a notice of appeal from the Court of Common Pleas must be served on all respondents within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of entry of the order or judgment.

The thirtieth day following receipt of written notice was September 5, 2026, which fell on a Saturday. September 6, 2026, fell on a Sunday, and September 7, 2026, was Labor Day, a federal holiday. Pursuant to Rule 263(a), SCACR, when the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or state or federal holiday, the period runs until the end of the next day that is neither a Saturday, Sunday, nor such holiday.

I hereby certify that I served a true and correct copy of the foregoing Notice of Appeal upon the following Respondents by depositing a copy in the United States Mail, properly addressed, with sufficient postage affixed, submitted, this 18th day of September, 2026.

Joanne Fields
Frank Fields, Jr.
107 Allen Drive
Ridgeland, South Carolina, 29936

Appellants, served the Notice of Appeal upon the Respondents on September 8, 2026.

Pursuant to Rule 203(d)(1)(B), South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the Notice of Appeal must be filed with the clerk of the lower court and the Clerk of the appellate court within ten (10) days after the Notice of Appeal is served.

Applying Rule 263(a), SCACR, the day of service is excluded from the computation. Accordingly, the ten-day filing period began on September 9, 2026, and the tenth day is September 18, 2026.

Therefore, the Notice of Appeal is being filed on September 18, 2026, within the time prescribed by Rule 203(d)(1)(B), SCACR.

I further certify that a copy of the Notice of Appeal is being filed with the following:

Jasper County Clerk of Court
P.O. Box 248
Ridgeland, SC 29936-0248

Clerk of the South Carolina Court of Appeals

Good afternoon,

My name is Angel Jackson, and I am an involved party in the above-captioned matter. I recently reviewed the public index and noticed that a Form 4 dismissal was entered as the final judgment by Judge Bonds on July 10, 2026.

However, neither I nor the other plaintiffs have received a copy of the decision by mail. Could you please advise whether a copy of the dismissal order has been sent, and if so, the date it was mailed?

Additionally, as the 30-day appeal deadline is approaching, could you please confirm whether the Form 4 currently uploaded to the public index represents the complete dismissal order and final judgment? We would like to ensure we have the full order available so that we may properly prepare any necessary appeal documents while awaiting delivery.

Thank you for your assistance. I appreciate your prompt response.

Sincerely,
Angel S. A. Jackson

Good afternoon,

A copy of the Order was previously mailed to you on July 11 to 27 Johnny Morrall, Apt. G3, Beaufort, SC 29902; however, it was returned as undeliverable. If this is not your current mailing address, please let me know so I can update your contact information.

As you are the pro se Plaintiff and I do not have contact information for the Defendants, it is your responsibility to provide them with a copy of the attached Order.

Thank you,

Laura
