Re: Elvira Perez v. Edgefield Community Healthcare, LLC
Appellate Case No. 2026-001556

Dear Mr. Perez:

Upon reviewing your motion to reconsider holding the appeal in abeyance, the following deficiency has been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or the filing will not be considered:

- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $50.00.

Additionally, as stated in this Court's letters dated July 15, 2026, and August 7, 2026, the following deficiencies remain regarding your prior filings, and these deficiencies must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this matter will be dismissed:

- The required filing fee for the filings made on July 17, 2026, and July 22, 2026, which this Court construes together as a motion seeking permission to file an appeal on behalf of the appellant, has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $50.00.

- You have not provided a proof of service for your motion seeking permission to file this appeal and for your notice of appeal. You must file a proof of service showing service of the notice of appeal, Notice of Power of Attorney, and the Addendum to the response to the deficiency letter on Respondent's counsel. The proof of service must be substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Finally, all documents filed with this Court, including all motions and proofs of service, must be signed. See Rule 267(b), SCACR. The documents you filed with this Court are not signed. You must sign the documents.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
