Good morning,

I left a voicemail yesterday regarding Appellate Case No. 2025-002087 and am following up briefly in writing.

C-Track currently reflects “Transcript Delivered – Direct Appeal” and the case status as “Initial Briefing.” My July 28 submission is listed as “Attempted Initial Brief of Appellant.”

Could you please confirm:

Whether my July 28 initial brief is being treated as filed, or whether I should resubmit my initial brief together with my Rule 209 Designation of Matter;

Whether my September 10 transcript update satisfied the Court’s transcript-update directive; and

Whether a current deadline has been set for my initial brief.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,

Sylecia McIntyre
Appellant, in proper person
