Good morning,

On September 22, 2026, I visited the South Carolina Court of Appeals regarding the outstanding deficiencies in my Lakeview case and my Human Affairs case.

During my visit, Jacqueline advised me that the deficiencies in both cases had been satisfied.

For my records, would you please confirm in writing that my understanding is correct and that there are currently no outstanding deficiencies requiring action from me in either case?

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,

s/ Wendell Don Cooper
