SC Court of Appeals

Pursuant to Rule 203(B) (iv), the issues to be raised on Appeal may include whether the Trial Court abused its discretion when it imposed a sentence of a YOA not to exceed five years, suspended with Probation for two years, including six months AHP and SAC for Warrant No.: 2026A1820200258; and a YOA not to exceed three years, suspended with Probation for two years, including six months of AHP and SAC for Warrant No.: 2026A1820500288, both of which are to run concurrent upon the Appellant after she plead guilty.

The undersigned does not have a good faith basis to believe that such an abuse occurred and the undersigned did not object to the sentence or file a Motion to Reconsider the sentence. Nevertheless, the undersigned consulted with the Appellant about her right to appeal, and after consultation, the undersigned has filed the instant appeal at the request of the Appellant because the Sixth Amendment requires counsel to follow the Appellant's request. See Frazer v.

South Carolina, 430F.3d 696, 706 (4th Cir. 2005) ("A Defendant has a right to pursue a direct appeal, even if frivolous, which counsel must assist as 'an active advocate in behalf of his client, '"') (quoting Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 744 (1967)).

Respectfully submitted,
