Re: Case No. 2024-000924 — Notice Being Mailed

Dear Madam Clerk:

I am writing to let you know that I am mailing a letter to your office concerning Case No. 2024-000924. I am one of the Respondent/Plaintiffs in this case.

The letter concerns the death of Roosevelt Davis, a named Petitioner in this matter, who died on August 25, 2026, in Greenwood County, South Carolina. We have not received any notice of Mr Davis's death.

The letter provides notice of his death and addresses the fact that subsequent filings continue to identify Mr. Davis as a Petitioner. I am unable to locate any Probate Court records or a named personal representative for Mr. Davis in the information available to me.

I am enclosing a copy of the funeral-home/newspaper death notice concerning Mr. Davis's death with the letter being mailed to your office.

I respectfully ask that the letter and enclosure be associated with Case No. 2024-000924 and brought to the appropriate attention of the Court.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,
/s/Vernell S. Humphries
