Dear Clerk of the South Carolina Court of Appeals,

I am writing regarding the deficiency letter dated September 25, 2026, in appellate case 2026-002003, Brittany Brown v. Azalea Parks Apartments.

The letter states that I need to provide proof that I served Respondent's counsel with my Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis. I contacted the Court and was informed that there is currently no attorney listed for Azalea Parks Apartments.

Because no counsel is listed, please clarify whether I should serve the Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis directly on Azalea Parks Apartments and then submit the appropriate Proof of Service (Form 7) to the Court.

I have separately served Azalea Parks Apartments with my Transcript Request. I want to make sure I properly correct the specific deficiency identified in the Court's September 25 letter.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,
Brittany Brown
Appellant, Self-Represented
Appellate Case No. 2026-002003

I would send this as soon as possible because the letter gives you a 10-day period to correct the deficiency. Keep a copy of the sent email for your records.
