I further state that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime set forth and that probable cause is based on the following facts:

On 9/17/2024, the defendant Kenyarta Smith did shoot with malice aforethought, causing her death at [REDACTED] or in the Loris section of Horry County. This is evidence through his post Miranda confession stating that he squeezed the trigger multiple times of a 9mm handgun that he claim to be his gun. This shooting occurred after a verbal argument between both parties. The victim's injuries indicate that she was shot from behind and that a physical argument also occurred with the defendant. The victim was the girlfriend to the defendant for 8 years and they co-habitated together. The defendant is also prohibited from possessing a firearm in the state of South Carolina per his criminal history. In doing so the defendant did violate SC Code of Laws 16-3-10 Murder -J.
