Re: Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas v. Sophia V. Brown
Appellate Case No. 2026-000925

Dear Counsel and Ms. Brown:

Upon review of this file, it appears we are holding the appeal in abeyance pending resolution of a bankruptcy action against Defendant Rosetta Bethea, who is not a party to the appeal. Counsel for Respondent notified the Court that Ms. Bethea has been discharged from bankruptcy. However, in that time, Appellant Brown filed a motion which we are construing as a motion to proceed without ordering the transcript. The appeal will continue to be held in abeyance pending a ruling on that motion. We will notify the parties of the next appellate timeline when we issue a ruling on the pending motion.

Very truly yours,
