To the Clerk of Court and Appellate Judges:

My name is Marthina Wardlaw, representing myself in Case No. 2026-002037.

I am writing to notify this Court that I have been displaced on the side of the highway since yesterday. The landlord executed an immediate lockout right after court because the lower court judge declined to rule on my undertaking, despite this Court's previous mandate.

I submitted my corrected paperwork and emergency stay yesterday at 1:49 PM. A ruling was issued much faster during my previous filing, and I urgently need intervention now as I remain outside.

The landlord is actively attempting to move a new tenant into the property immediately to prevent my return. If a new occupant takes possession of the unit before this Court acts, it will cause irreparable harm that cannot be undone by a standard appeal.
