Dear Clerk's Office,

I am writing regarding the September 30, 2026 deficiency letter concerning the $50 filing fee for my Motion for Leave to Supplement the Appeal and for Procedural Directions in Socite v. Mandarin Law Group, LLP, Appellate Case No. 2026-001966.

I enclosed a $50 USPS money order payable to SC Court of Appeals with the packet mailed on September 25, 2026. The attached photograph shows the completed money order clipped to the first page of my motion.

The payment and mailing details are:

USPS money order number: 55327193512
Amount: $50.00
Memo: 2026-001966 Motion filing fee
USPS tracking number: 9505 5124 2138 6268 6591 13
Mailed from: Evans, Georgia, on September 25, 2026
Destination: P.O. Box 11629, Columbia, SC 29211

The Court's scanned copy of my filing also includes an envelope bearing a different sender's name and a Summerville, South Carolina postmark. That envelope is not mine. I have attached that page to assist your review.

Please check whether my money order was separated from the filing or associated with another submission, and confirm whether it has been located and credited to this case.

If the payment cannot be located promptly, please advise how I should resolve the deficiency within the time allowed by your letter.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,
Camelia Socite
Appellant, pro se
