Dear Clerk of the Court,

I am writing regarding Appellate Case No. 2026-001855 (Evan Clint Rayfield v. Kevin Hurd).

On Monday, September 21, 2026, I submitted the cured Form 7 Proof of Service to your office, and I received email confirmation from the Court that my deficiency was resolved and the appeal would be reinstated.

However, because the formal Order of Reinstatement has not yet been filed and communicated to the lower courts, Spartanburg Magistrate Region #1 has proceeded under the assumption that the September 10 dismissal is final. This morning, the local magistrate posted a Writ of Ejectment on my door, ordering me to vacate the premises by Tuesday, October 6, 2026.

I have attached a scanned copy of this Writ of Ejectment to this email for the Court's immediate review.

Because the appeal process is actively curing, I respectfully request that the Court expedite the entry of the formal Order of Reinstatement. Additionally, I urgently request that the Court issue a notice, stay, or writ of supersedeas to Spartanburg Magistrate Region #1 and the Spartanburg County Clerk of Court, confirming that the Court of Appeals retains jurisdiction over this matter so that the impending October 6 eviction is lawfully halted.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this urgent jurisdictional matter. I stand ready to provide any further documentation the Court may require.

Respectfully submitted,
