Good morning:

Upon reviewing Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter, we found that Appellant also sent a Petition for Review of Supersedeas Ruling. Our office looked in the Case Management System and did not see that the Petition had been received by the Court as a separate filing, but saw that it was filed as an attachment to Appellant's Designation of Matter. Based on the date of service, today would be the deadline for Respondent to the Petition. If the Petition was not properly received and filed by the Court, would today still be the deadline to respond to the Petition? Would the Petition be filed with the current appeal or would it be a separate matter?

Thank you,

Madison Kelly Bush
Attorney
