

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Parnell Riley, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-002271

Lower Court Case No. 2012-40-07930

ORDER

By order dated December 18, 2013, this appeal was dismissed. When no petition for rehearing was received within the time specified by Rule 221 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), the remittitur was properly sent to the circuit court on January 6, 2014.

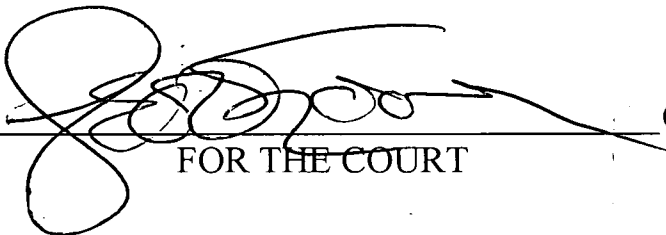

Petitioner has now filed a motion to reconsider the remittitur dated January 13, 2014. Since the remittitur has been properly sent, appellate jurisdiction has ended and no further motion can be considered in this case. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007). Accordingly, the motion is dismissed to the extent it seeks any relief in this case.

In addition to dismissing the appeal in this case, the order directed that any motion to allow the late filing of any notice of appeal in 2006-CP-40-07502 must be served and filed within twenty days. The order also specified certain documents or information that must accompany such a motion, including information showing that the notice of appeal in the 2006 action has been timely served on opposing counsel.¹

To the extent petitioner may be seeking an extension of time to file the motion to allow the late filing of a notice of appeal in the 2006 action, an extension is granted until February 10, 2014.

¹ It is noted that the public index for Richland County reflects that a notice of appeal in the 2006 action may have been filed with the clerk of the circuit court in January 2008, but the records of this Court do not show that this notice of appeal has been filed with this Court.
