The affiant states that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime set forth and that such probable cause is based on the following facts:

That on July 11, 2024, at approximately 0226 hours, while at 1046 Gardner Road, West Ashley, in the county and state aforesaid, the above-named Defendant, did commit the offense of violation 16-3-656 of the South Carolina Code of laws, 1976 as amended, Criminal Sexual Conduct; Assault with Intent to Commit 1st, in that the defendant, John David Gass III did willfully and unlawfully attack the victim by punching the victim on or about her head, ribs, and back, before pulling off her pants, exposing her bare vagina, and then rubbing his bare penis against her vagina in attempt to penetrate her.

That on July 11, 2024, at approximately 0226 hours, the defendant chased after the victim as she was fleeing from him. The victim then tripped in the roadway and the defendant tackled the victim and began "boxing" her on or about her head, ribs, and back. Dahlberg, arrived on scene and the detained defendant. Post Miranda Warnings the Defendant stated that the victim was attempting to get away from him and then they had rough sex.

The above information was revealed through the investigation of Deputy J. Hope, Deputy A. Albright, and CPD Office C. Dahlberg and they are witnesses to prove the same against the form of the Statutory Law such case made and provided for against the peace and dignity of the state.
