S.C. SUPREME COURT

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In the Supreme Court

APPEAL FROM THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Appellate Case No. 2026-001941

Public Service Commission of South Carolina;
Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc;
South Carolina Public Service Authority.....Respondents.

v.

John M. Burbage and Lauren Moody Stanfill.....Appellants.

MOTION FOR SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

Pursuant to Rule 265(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules and § 58-33-310(C) of the South Carolina Code of Laws, 1976 as amended, the undersigned respectfully moves that the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (hereinafter “the Commission”) be removed as a party to this appeal, and in support of this motion states as follows:

Appellants have appealed Commission Order Nos. 2026-350 and 2026-464. The Commission found, concluded, and ordered that Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. and the South Carolina Public Service Authority were entitled to certain relief in Commission Order No. 2026-350. Subsequently, Appellants filed a Petition for Reconsideration from Commission Order No. 2026-350. The Commission subsequently denied the Appellants’ Petition for Reconsideration. Order No. 2026-464 at 12-20, 22.

The Commission is a statutory, quasi-judicial body with jurisdictional limits established by South Carolina law. Pursuant to statute, the Commission is prohibited from being a party to an appeal of a Commission decision. “Any final order on the merits issued pursuant to this chapter shall be immediately appealable to the Supreme Court of South Carolina in accordance with South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 203. The commission must not be party to an appeal.” S.C. Code Ann. § 58-33-310(C).

WHEREFORE, the undersigned hereby moves for the Public Service Commission of South Carolina to be removed as a party in this appeal.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Nicole M. Given
