Dear Clerk of the Court of Appeals:

Re: Stephanie T. Hameed v. Estate of Kevin A. Thurston
Appellate Case No. 2026-001285

I am the self-represented Appellant in this matter. On Thursday, October 1, 2026, I sent my Appellant's Corrected Initial Reply Brief, certificate of service, and $50 filing fee in response to the Court's September 30, 2026 deficiency letter.

Please confirm whether these items have been received and whether the deficiencies identified in that letter have been resolved. Please also advise whether the Court has entered an order concerning my request to file the initial reply brief out of time.

If anything remains outstanding, please identify it so I can address it promptly.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,

Stephanie T. Hameed

Good morning Ms. Beckman,

I hope you are well. I am writing to make the Court aware that we were recently served with a Summons and Complaint filed by Ms. Hameed in the Common Pleas Court concerning a matter that is also currently pending before the appellate court.

Because the underlying matter is presently before the appellate court, I wanted to bring this related filing to the Court's attention and ensure that it is properly disclosed. At this time, I am uncertain how the proceedings in the Common Pleas Court will be handled in relation to the pending appeal.

Since we have been served with the Summons and Complaint, we intend to file the appropriate response or motion in the Common Pleas Court so that we do not risk being placed in default while the appellate matter remains pending.

I have attached copies of the documents that were served upon us for the Court's awareness and reference.

Please let me know if there is anything further that we should provide to the Court regarding this related filing.

Thank you for your time and assistance.

Respectfully,
