Ms. Jenny Abbott Kitchings,

I think there has been a misunderstanding about my appeal. Today, I received a letter from Chief deputy Clerk Catherine S. Harrison. The letter was written to ~~Counsel Walter R. Martin, Esquire for the state v.~~ Nevelle S. Reid Appellate Case No. 2026-002111. It stated the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules and my deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of the letter or the matter will be dismissed. However, Walter R. Martin, Esquire was not my Counselor for trial. I had to represent myself pro se. I wrote a letter to you on 9-30-26 explaining my situation. After trial they gave me a Notice of Appeal to sign and that was it. Catherine Harrison letter stated that the Proof of Service is not in compliance with the SCACR and the proof of service does not state the date of service for the notice of Appeal; Also, it says the Personal data identifiers and other sensitive information have not been redacted. I don't know anything about this and Walter R. Martin wasn't my Counselor. He was my standby Counselor. I'm not sure if this is a error on his end or the Clerk who gave me the Notice of Appeal. I'm not sure if he is entitled to correct it if he was not my Counselor. I'm afraid this can affect my Appeal. Will you please read my letter too and look into this situation because I need help.
