To the Court Reporter and South Carolina Court Administration:

We write to follow up on our transcript request of September 22, 2026 that was acknowledged by your office with a stamped copy on September 23, 2026, and that concerns the hearing held May 28, 2026, before the Hon. William W. Wheeler, III, required for the pending appeal.

So that we may promptly complete the written payment arrangements contemplated by Rule 207(a)(1), SCACR, we respectfully request the following at your earliest convenience, and in any event by close of business Wednesday, October 14, 2026:

A written cost estimate for the complete transcript, including the original and any copies the Rules require;

The deposit amount, if any, and complete payment instructions (accepted methods and payee);

The identity and contact information of the court reporter or transcriptionist responsible for converting the Webex recording for production; and

Confirmation that, upon receipt of the foregoing and our remittance, the request stands in the production queue, together with the anticipated delivery date, mindful that Rule 207(a)(2), SCACR, provides for delivery no later than sixty (60) days after the date of the request.

The Appellants stand ready to remit payment immediately upon receipt of the estimate and instructions. Should any further information from the Appellants be needed to process this request, please advise and it will be furnished.

By copying all parties, the Office of Court Administration, and the clerk of the appellate court, the Appellants contemporaneously furnish the copies required by Rule 207(a)(1), SCACR, for this correspondence.

Respectfully,
