Re: Billy Deon-Andre Hodge vs. State
Appellate Case No. 2013-002763
Lower Court Case No. 2012-CP-23-3900

Dear Mr. Shearhouse:

I am unable to provide a good faith explanation as to why the PCR judge's determination that this action is barred by the statute of limitations was improper. I am unable to provide a good faith explanation showing there is an issue from Petitioner's guilty plea which can be reviewed on appeal. I am forwarding a copy of this letter and a copy of correspondence from the Supreme Court of South Carolina to Mr. Hodge.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Hodge:

As you know, the PCR judge ruled that your PCR petition was barred by the Statute of Limitations. The Supreme Court has written me asking me to provide an explanation as to why the judge's determination was improper. I am unable to provide a good faith explanation as to why the judge's determination was improper.

Additionally, the Supreme Court asked that I provide issues from your guilty plea which can be reviewed on appeal. I am unable to provide a good faith explanation showing there is an issue from your guilty plea which can be reviewed on appeal.

You may forward your explanation of these issues to the address listed on the enclosed correspondence from the Supreme Court.

Yours very truly,

Caroline Horlbeck
