Elite Palmetto Real Estate, Plaintiff

v.

Zamarieth A. Hickman, Defendant

Case No. 2026CV0810400689

EMERGENCY MOTION TO STAY EXECUTION OF WRIT OF EJECTMENT AND REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED HEARING

Defendant Zamarieth A. Hickman, appearing without counsel, respectfully requests that this Court temporarily stay enforcement of the writ of ejectment and schedule an expedited hearing. In support, Defendant states:

1. The Court entered an eviction judgment dated September 14, 2026, concerning 687 Black Pine Road, Moncks Corner, South Carolina 29461.
2. A writ of ejectment dated October 12, 2026, was posted at the premises on October 12, 2026, at approximately 3:26 p.m., according to the copy provided to Defendant.
3. Defendant disputes the circumstances surrounding the nonpayment of rent. Around the time he attempted to pay rent, a funeral-related payment associated with the death of his sister was processed at approximately the same time. Defendant also attempted to make a rent payment through the landlord's online portal, but reports that the portal was unavailable or disabled for him.
4. Defendant asks for an opportunity to present relevant records, including attempted payment records, bank statements, funeral-payment records, and any evidence concerning access to the payment portal.
5. Enforcement before an expedited hearing may cause immediate loss of housing and removal of personal property. Defendant requests a short stay so the Court may consider whether relief is legally available.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Defendant respectfully asks the Court to (a) stay execution of the writ of ejectment temporarily, if authorized by law; (b) set this matter for an emergency hearing at the earliest available time; and (c) grant any other relief the Court deems lawful and appropriate. Defendant understands that filing this motion alone does not stop enforcement and that an appeal bond or other requirements may apply.

Respectfully submitted,
