

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Marthina Wardlaw, Appellant,

v.

Martin Gilliard, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2026-002037

ORDER

On October 15, 2026, Appellant filed an "emergency ex parte verified motion for immediate interim relief, affirmative relief under Appellate Rule 241, protective relief, and appropriate sanctions." Appellant asks this court to consider her motion without requiring her to serve Respondent. After careful consideration, we deny Appellant's request. If Appellant would like for this court to consider her motion, Appellant shall serve Respondent with her "emergency ex parte verified motion for immediate interim relief, affirmative relief under Appellate Rule 241, protective relief, and appropriate sanctions" and provide this court with proof of serving Respondent within ten days of the date of this order.
