Dear Ms. Nelson and Southern Reporting Staff:

I am Mark-Anthony Nunnally, an individually self-represented Appellant in The Bank of New York Mellon v. Timothy Allen Nunally, et al.

I request a complete, certified transcript of all proceedings recorded on July 10, 2025, before Judge James O. Spence in Lexington County, South Carolina, trial court case 2024-CP-32-01094. The related Court of Appeals case is 2026-001103.

The attached July 24, 2025 Form 4 identifies Sallye D. Nelson of Southern Reporting as the reporter for that hearing.

Please provide the entire recorded proceeding in a full-size, searchable PDF with page and line numbers and the reporter's certification. Please also advise whether a certified paper original must be ordered separately.

The Court of Appeals has extended the deadline to serve the Record on Appeal to October 28, 2026. If possible, I request delivery by October 23, 2026.

Please confirm:

1. Whether a certified transcript already exists and can be supplied promptly.
2. The estimated total cost, required deposit, and payment instructions.
3. The earliest available delivery date and any expedited charge.

Please obtain my approval before incurring expedited charges. If your office requires an order form, please send it promptly so I can complete the necessary arrangements.

If delivery before October 28 is unavailable, please advise promptly in writing of the earliest achievable date. If another reporter or custodian handles this record, please route this request accordingly and let me know.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,

Mark-Anthony Nunnally
Appellant, individually and pro se
