

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Patricia N. Weaver, Appellant,

v.

Blanchard & Calhoun, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2026-002137

ORDER

On October 1, 2026, Appellant filed a petition to rehear this court's denial of a petition for a writ of supersedeas. See Rule 241(d)(7), SCACR ("Any party aggrieved by the decision of . . . an individual judge . . . may petition under this Rule for a review of that decision."). After careful consideration of the petition, the court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.¹

J.

¹ Appellant also moved this court to grant a temporary stay. In light of our disposition of her petition for rehearing, we hold her motion for a temporary stay is moot. Further, Appellant moved this court to allow her to file her motion for a temporary stay and petition for rehearing without paying the filing fees. We grant Appellant's motion, and we have considered her two motions without requiring her pay the filing fees. To the extent, Appellant requests this court rehear its motion denying her request to proceed in forma pauperis, we take no action. See Rule 221(c), SCACR ("The appellate court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal."). We remind Appellant that she is required to pay the notice of appeal filing fee in accordance with this court's October 1, 2026 order and failure to pay will result in dismissal of her appeal.

Blake L Hewitt

J.

James V. ...

J.

Columbia, South Carolina

cc:

Patricia N. Weaver

Blanchard & Calhoun

FILED
Oct 19 2026