Re: Response to October 19, 2026 Deficiency Letter; Appellate Case No. 2026-002272

Dear Clerk:

I respectfully submit my Amended Notice of Appeal in response to the Court's October 19, 2026 deficiency letter, which requested a full caption identifying all appellants and respondents and proof of service upon respondents' counsel.

I request that the Court accept the enclosed amended notice as a correction to my previously submitted notice. I also request that the Clerk associate with this appeal any accompanying properly completed proof of service and supporting documentation concerning my attempts to serve counsel.

The Georgetown County Sheriff's Office has advised me that three attempts to serve Attorney Eric Gillespie Armstrong were unsuccessful. I am seeking written documentation of those attempts and am taking steps to accomplish service in a manner authorized by the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. I do not represent that attempted service constitutes completed service.

Please advise if the Court requires any additional corrective filing or an application for relief concerning service. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

AMENDED NOTICE OF APPEAL

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Plaintiff/Appellant Jason J. Collins, appearing pro se, submits this Amended Notice of Appeal in response to the Court of Appeals deficiency letters dated October 15 and October 19, 2026, to correct the caption by identifying the parties individually.

Appellant appeals the order entered August 4, 2026, denying his motion for sanctions for spoliation of evidence, adverse inference, and injunctive relief, and the order entered September 14, 2026, denying his Rule 59(e), SCRCP, motion for reconsideration.

Appellant identifies the denial of injunctive relief as the asserted basis for interlocutory appellate jurisdiction under S.C. Code Ann. § 14-3-330(4), subject to determination by this Court.

This amended notice corrects the caption of the previously submitted notice; it does not add new parties or expand the orders appealed.
