

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Nevelle Shabarr Reid, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2026-002111

ORDER

This appeal arises out of Appellant's indictments for distribution of methamphetamine and trafficking fentanyl. From our review of the public index, it appears Appellant is represented by Walter R. Martin, Esquire, and a motion to relieve counsel is pending in the circuit court. By operation of Rule 264, SCACR, counsel of record below remains counsel of record on appeal. It also appears that sentencing has not yet occurred. After careful consideration, this appeal is dismissed as not immediately appealable. See S.C. Code Ann. §14-3-330 (2017) (providing that only final judgments and certain interlocutory orders are immediately appealable); State v. Manigo, 448 S.C. 326, 329-30, 934 S.E.2d 59, 60 (Ct. App. 2026) ("South Carolina law has long held that a criminal defendant may not appeal until a conviction and sentence have been rendered."). The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.
