Dear Ms. Klein,

I am contacting you because the South Carolina Judicial Branch Transcript Portal identifies you as the court reporter assigned to the April 1, 2026 hearing before Judge Donald B. Hocker in Richard Bowman v. Cosima MacLean.

My former attorney originally requested this transcript on May 15, 2026, under Request No. 1835370331.

After repeated unsuccessful inquiries regarding its status, I submitted a new transcript request on October 20, 2026, under Request No. 2010527150.

The South Carolina Court of Appeals has ordered me to provide proof of satisfactory written transcript and payment arrangements by October 26, 2026.

Would you please confirm whether you are responsible for preparing this transcript and whether the original request was paid for or remains active?

If payment is outstanding, please provide the estimated cost and payment instructions so I can make arrangements immediately. I would also appreciate confirmation of the anticipated delivery timeframe.

If the transcript has been completed or delivered to my former attorney, please advise how I may obtain a copy.

I respectfully request your assistance in resolving this matter before the Court's deadline and avoiding duplicate payment for the same transcript.

Thank you for your time and assistance.

Respectfully,

Richard Bowman

Dear Ms. Klein,

Thank you for your prompt response. I understand that you are not a certified transcriptionist.

Since the South Carolina Judicial Branch Transcript Portal identifies you as the court reporter assigned to the April 1, 2026 hearing, would you please advise who is responsible for preparing the official transcript or who maintains the recording of that hearing?

If possible, I would greatly appreciate the name, email address, or direct contact information of the appropriate transcriptionist or department.

I have contacted the Transcript Department repeatedly without receiving a definitive response regarding this outstanding request.

My original transcript request number is 1835370331, and my new request number is 2010527150.

The Court of Appeals has ordered me to establish satisfactory written transcript and payment arrangements by October 26, 2026.

Any assistance in identifying the correct person would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
