AND

In the Matter of the Estate of Paul Brandon Barringer, II

Hampton Barringer Luzak, Appellant,

v.

Merrill U. Barringer, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2025-000076

ORDER

After careful consideration of the petitions for rehearing, the court has discovered no material fact or principle of law that has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. See Rule 221(a), SCACR. Therefore, both petitions for rehearing are denied.

However, we amend the opinion—Opinion Number 6156 filed July 29, 2026—to delete the sentence on the third page that reads, "Mrs. Barringer has not since updated her will to change this clause to exercise the power of appointment." Additionally, we delete the sentence on the fourth page that reads, "Even though the actions had previously been consolidated, in December 2020, Judge Mullen ordered bifurcation of the matter into two trials: one for the claims from the 2019 action and the other for the claims from the 2016 action," and replace it with the following sentence: "In December 2020, Judge Mullen ordered bifurcation of the matter into two trials: the first for the equitable claims and the second for the remaining legal claims."
