Mayshell Wilson,
Petitioner,

Supreme Court Case No. 2026-002330

v.

Willie Mae Reed,
Respondent.

Related Magistrate's Court Case No.
2023CV1410100874

EMERGENCY MOTION FOR TEMPORARY STAY OF EXECUTION OF WRIT OF EJECTMENT AND FOR EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION OF BOND OR OTHER SECURITY

Petitioner Mayshell Wilson, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for emergency relief, to the extent this Court has jurisdiction, and states:

1. On October 22, 2026, at approximately 11:16 a.m., Petitioner was served with a writ of ejectment relating to the property at 6411 Summerton Highway, Manning, South Carolina 29102. The writ states that Petitioner must voluntarily vacate within 24 hours before execution may proceed.
2. The writ identifies the related Clarendon County Magistrate's Court matter as Case No. 2023CV1410100874 and states that judgment was entered on January 25, 2024.
3. Petitioner seeks an immediate temporary stay of execution while this Court considers the emergency request and any appropriate bond or other security. Without prompt relief, Petitioner and her household face imminent displacement before the Court can meaningfully consider the request.
4. Petitioner is asking this Court to act without a prior lower-court ruling because the writ's 24-hour deadline leaves insufficient time to pursue the ordinary process without risking execution. Petitioner states that the lower court would not accept the motion in the time available. Petitioner respectfully asks the Court to treat these circumstances as extraordinary and impracticable for purposes of any applicable lower-court-first requirement. Petitioner does not represent that the lower court entered an order denying relief.
5. This request is limited to emergency relief concerning execution of the writ of ejectment. Petitioner understands that filing this motion does not itself stay execution and requests an order from the Court if relief is granted.

WHEREFORE

Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court, to the extent it has jurisdiction: (a) enter an immediate temporary stay of execution of the writ of ejectment; (b) consider this motion on an expedited basis; (c) set or clarify any bond or other security required and the conditions for such security; and (d) grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
