RE: How Is An Issue Preserved For Appeal?
Why Wasn't My Issues Preserved?
Is This Fair?

Dear Clerk of Court,

I have a major concern regarding my case. PCR Case No. 2017-CP-46-01938 is the case I am referring to. Recently Kersey A. Reynolds filed an Writ of Certiorari Pursuant to Austin vs. State 305 S.C. 453, 409 S.E.2d 395 (1991) on my behalf. I had to file an Austin vs. State because my PCR counsel Michael D. Brown violated my Constitutional Rights denying me the right to appeal. Once I found out my appeal was not filed I took necessary steps to protect my case like I am exercising now. Michael D. Brown was found Guilty of Professional Misconduct see. In Re Brown OP. No. 28349 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed August 12 2026) (Howard Adv. Sh. No. 30) Due to the deficient Performance my issues were not Preserved or "Pressed" enough to be Preserved is what I am thinking. This is not fair to me or my case. I wanted my issues Preserved or at least available for Preservation. I am and still is willing to "Press" hard on my PCR issues that was critically unchallenged. Do to the misconduct of Brown I should have a Re-Relief Seekers effort made by the Courts.

I also read my Appendix which was recently sent to me and it says that I cannot make a successive PCR application on ineffective. I did not know I could raise ineffective assistance of PCR counsel claims on a belated appeal, I would have included those issues but I thought the courts would not hear my issues because successive applications are barred. I will submit what I have to in order for my case to be properly protected and prevent further contamination of misconduct. Thank you in advance for your time.
