Ground: (B) ^{1d} The Solicitor failed to follow procedures set in Rule 77(e), S.C.R.P. ?

Supporting Facts AND Arguments

The Applicant Argues that the Solicitor operated outside the color of the law, by failure to comply with Rule 77(e), S.C.R.P. However, to the extent Section (e). establishes that no special term of the Court of General Sessions was convened in February, 1999, under the provisions of S.C. Code Ann. 14-5-760(2) section 14-5-710, or section 14-5-720. As established above, the Solicitor violated the Administration of Justice, by wrongfully impaneling its Grand Jury outside the color of the law set forth in S.C. Code Ann. 14-5-760(2), S.C. Constitution Article V.

The statutory terms above are clearly unambiguous, and require the County Solicitor to prepare and submit Bills of indictment through presiding Judge of the Court of General Sessions for a Grand Jury impaneled under the authority of the Court of general sessions, "no exceptions."

Ground (c), The solicitor duty and acts, is prejudicial to the Administration of Justice.

Supporting Facts AND Arguments

The Applicant in this motion of after/newly discovered evidence before the Court contends, that it is well established that the solicitor's actions is prejudicial to the administration of Justice. the solicitor unlawfully impaneled its Grand Jury outside the statute S.C. Code Ann. 14-5-760(2). The solicitor in this case did commit prosecutorial misconduct, malicious prosecution, and acts that is prejudicial to the administration of Justice.

pursuant to Hayden v. State, 278 S.E. 610 (1983).
However, due to the extent of the Solicitor's failure to comply with procedural requirement of the statute constitutes a denial of due process and fundamental fairness, which resulted in a complete manifested disregard of the law, by the Solicitor impaneling its Grand Jury outside the jurisdiction of the Court of General Sessions, consequently, this unlawful method of practice invalidates all judicial proceedings in the case, Halley v. Dorsey, 973 F.2d 272 (4th Cir. 1992).
These Courts arguments and statutory laws, has left no room for doubt as to the law this Circuit concerns the requirement of a correct indictment, to the exact determination of the Legislature intent is a matter of law.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing reason, the Applicant respectfully request that this Court grant the Memorandum of Law in support of Motion for After/Newly Discovered Evidence of Post-Conviction Relief, pursuant to Tilly v. State, 511 S.E.2d 689 (S.C. 1993), as a matter of law.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR

AFTER/NEWLY DISCOVERED

EVIDENCE OF POST CONVICTION

RELIEF APPLICATION

LISA COMER
CLERK OF COURT
LEXINGTON, SC

This matter comes before the court by way of the Applicant's memorandum of law in support of after/newly discovered evidence of post-conviction relief pursuant to Rule 60 (b)(3), S.C.R.C.P., AND South Carolina Code Ann. §17-27-20, section (1) and (2). The applicant moves the court to consider the factual allegations on the following grounds:

GROUND A: The lexington County Solicitor "manifested a totally disregard of the law" by unlawfully impaneling its Grand Jury outside color of the law as set forth in S.C. Code Ann. § 14-5-760 (2).

Supporting facts and argument

Applicant argues that the solicitor "manifested a totally disregard of the law" by unlawfully impaneling its grand jury outside color of the law, as set forth in S.C. Code Ann. §14-5-760 (2)

As mention above, the South Carolina General Assembly did not enacted a provisions in S.C. Code Ann. § 14-5-760 (2). for a term of court for the "month of February."

In the case at hand the indictment reads as follows:

"As the court of general sessions, convened in February, 1999 the Grand Jurors of Lexington county present upon their oath: as presented above, there is a very peculiar difference between the indictment and the statute of S.C. Code Ann. 14-5-760(2). The statute is definitely without a provision for the above mention "term of Court," The Solicitor manifested a totally disregard of the law" by violating the Constitutional obligation contained within the statutory law provides 'only' for the following term of court for lexington county "shall be held at lexington on the third Monday in January, the fourth monday in May, and the Tuesday folloing the first monday in September. "each" term of court for General Sessions shall be for two weeks. as established above the "Mandatory Language" of the statute is the word "Shall" utilized in S.C. Code Ann. §14-5-760(2), which creates a liberty interest.

However, to the extent in order to understand the meaning of the statute or phrase of law, it is necessary to determine the meaning of the language as it is used in the particular context, Robinson v. Shell Oil Company. 117 S.Ct. 843 (1997), Article 12 section 2 utilizes the word "Shall" is mandatory. Nowhere in S.C. Code ANN. §14-5-760(2), does the South Carolina Legislature enact read a provision in the statute for a term of Court for the month of "February."

As discussed above, there is simply no language in the statute set forth in S.C. Code Ann. §14-5-760(2), which implies it excludes a "term of court for the month of February" to the extent if the Legislature had intended the "term of Court" for the month of February to apply, it could have included such language. However, to the effect if the legislature intended ^{The} statute ^{to} apply to certain proceedings it could have done so by including such language. Applicant being ^{within} with the framework established by the Supreme court in Ex Parte Lilly, 7 S.C. ~~1876~~ ³⁷² W.L. 5977 and State v. Henderson, 136 S.C. 363 (¹⁹²⁶). As such which analysis (term of court) very ^{similar} similar to the one involved here. This matter presented above for review is not a challenge to the court's general grant of authority to hear and detemined cases, That authority is rightfully granted by The South Carolina Constitution; State v. Gentry, 610 S.E.2d 494 (2005), and Gentry will not be the issue here.

GROUND: B Did the Solicitor failed to follow procedure setforth in Rule 77(e), S.C.R.C.P.?

Supporting facts and argument

The Applicant ^{argues} argue that the Solicitor operated outside color of law, by failure to comply with Rule 77(e), S.C.R.C.P. However, to the extent section (e). cancelling or ordering term of court. No term of Court shall be cancelled, or additional term scheduled without prior approval of the Chief Justice. WHEN THE Solicitor Request that a week of Common Pleas court be not held, or the Solicitor requests that a week of General Sessions ^{Court} could not be held, The Clerk shall immediately notify the Court administration of theis state. As mention above, one additional piece of evidence very clearly settles the matter of Solicitor's false evidence contained in exhibit A, also establishes that no special term of the Court of General Sessions was convened in February, 1999, under the provisions of S.C. Code Ann. 14-5-760(2) Section § 14-5-710, or section § 14-5-720. As established above, the Solicitor violated the administration of Justice, by wrongfully impaneling its Grand Jury outside the color of the law set forth in S.C. Code Ann. 14-5-760(2) S.C. Constitution Article V.

The statutory terms above are clearly unambiguous, and require the county Solicitor to prepare and submit Bills of indictment through presiding judge of the court of General Sessions for a grand jury impaneled under the authority of the court of general sessions, "no exceptions".

GROUND C The Solicitor duty and acts, is prejudicial to the administration of justice.

Supporting facts and argument

The Applicant in this motion of after/newly discovered evidence before the court contends, That it is well established that the Solicitor's actions is prejudicial to the administration of justice. The Solicitor unlawfully impaneled its Grand Jury outside the statute, S.C. Code Ann. 14-5-760(2). The Solicitor in this case did commit prosecutorial misconduct, malicious prosecution, and acts that is prejudicial to the administration of justice. Here, Administration of justice Means preformance of acts or duties recorded by law in discharge ^{of That} ~~of~~ duty.

Additionally, there is no time limitation within, which such motion for newly discovered evidence. pursuant to Hayden v. State, 278 SC 610 (1983). However, due to the extent of the solicitor's failure to comply with procedural requirement of the statute constitute denial of due process and fundamental fairness which resulted in a complete manifested disregard of the law, by the Solicitor impaneling its Grand Jury outside the jurisdiction of the Court of General Sessions, consequently, this unlawful method of practice invalidates all judicial proceedings in the case, Halley v. Dorsey, 973 F.2d 272 (4th Cir. 1992), These courts arguments and statutory laws, has left no room for doubt as to the law this circuit concerns the requirement of a correct indictment, to the exact determination of the legislature intent in a matter of law.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing reason, the Applicant respectfully request that the Court grant the MEMORADUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR AFTER/NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE OF POST-COVICTION RELIEF, pursuant to Tilly v. State, 511 S.E.2d 689 (S.C. 1993), as a matter of law
