SC Court of Appeals

Dear, Clerk.

Under Rule 607 (i) Retention of Recordings

(1) Five years from Proceeding. A Court Reporter must retain the Primary and backup recordings of a Proceeding for at least five years after the date of the Proceeding before destroying or deleting and recordings. If the Proceeding was a hearing or trial which lasted for more than one day, the time shall be computed from the last of the hearing or trial.

Here I got a letter dated october 15, 2026. from the South Carolina Court Administration South Carolina Supreme Court Columbia, South Carolina Columbia, south carolina 1220 senate street suite 200 Columbia, South Carolina 29201.

I went to trial on February 28, 1995. and was Convicted on March 2, 1995. and sentence to two Life sentence in the department of South Carolina Correctional Institution.

Here I have the Records of Proceedings pages held on that date more then (32) years ago of the Transcript from the Court of General Sessions Court in Pickens County. testimony and the Colsing argument of the Solicitor's and the Chief witnesses

James F, Simpson. with dentension Center Records and no Indictment that the Solicitor's office claim that they got on November 17, 1994. I don't understand that how the State can do what they want to do and get away with it, why is this happening in the Court of Law.
