Anthony G. Bryant

Appellant/

V. Case Number : 2026-002233

Dominion Energy Corporation of South Carolina

Respondent

Lower Court Case No 2025 CP 100 5617

PRO SE LITIGANT'S MOTION

FOR CLARIFICATION OF FINAL JUDGEMENT,

DIRECTION ON E-FILING ACCESS UNDER THE/

FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT AND EXEMPTION

FROM IN FORMA PAUPERIS FINANCIAL QUESTIONNAIRE

FOR PAID/ WAIVED MOTION SCHEDULING

To: The Honorable Clerk of of the South Carolina Court of Appeals and

Counsel for Respondent Dominion Energy Corporation of South Carolina

(McGuire Woods)

Now comes the Appellant, Anthony G. Bryant appearing Pro Se, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court pursuant to Rules 222, 240, and 241 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) for order granting clarification of the final judgement issued September 21, 2026, directing the processing and scheduling of motion without requiring completion of in forma pauperis (IFP) financial disclosure forms, and addressing pro se access to electronic filing in support whereof, Appellant shows as follows:

I. MOTION FOR CLARIFICATION AND E-FILING DUE PROCESS

1. Clarification of Final Judgement

Appellant moves this Court for clarification of the Order/Final Judgement dated September 21 2026 issued regarding the lower court proceeding (Judge Graham Presiding)

2. Fourteenth Amendment Equal Protection & Due Process

Appellant asserts constitutional rights under the Due Process and Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution to have equal access to the Court's motion scheduling and docket management systems.

3. E-FILING ACCESS DISPARITY : Under current court practices, electronic filing (e-filing) access is limited to licensed members of the South Carolina Bar Association creates an undue operational burden on over 3 million unrepresented adults in accessing justice and receiving timely Judicial Notice .

II. EXEMPTION FROM INFORMA PAUPERIS (IFP) FINANCIAL QUESTIONNAIRE

4. Motion Fee Exemption/ Waiver Request: Appellant requests that this motion be placed immediately on the Motion Calendar scheduled for consideration by the Clerk of the Court without requiring Appellant to submit or respond to questions regarding in forma pauperis status .
5. Appellant requests an explicit exemption/waiver from filing fees or financial screening forms pursuant to the internet authority of the Court to manage its docket and ensure equal access for self- represented litigants .

III. SERVICE AND RELEVANT CONTEXT

6. Service on Counsel: Service of this Motion is made directly upon legal counsel for Respondent Dominion Energy Corporation of South Carolina (McGuire Woods LLP) pursuant to Rule 233, SCACR.

7. Statutory & Ethical Rules Background: Appellant notes for this record his long standing participation in local civic governance including service on the Charleston County Board of Zoning Appeals (1999-2006) and references compliance with the South Carolina Government Accountability and Campaign Reform Act (SC Code 8-13-100)

8. Privacy and Intercepted Mail:

Appellant incorporates references to notifications from the South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs (dated September 17 2026) regarding data/privacy protection and unauthorized interference with judicial/court correspondence under applicable state privacy statutes .

Wherefore Appellant Anthony G. Bryant respectfully request that this Honorable Court:

1. Issue and Order clarifying the final Judgement dated September 21, 2026
2. Direct Clerk to place this Motion on this Court's active Motion Schedule without requiring In Forma Pauperis financial declarations .

3. Grant Appropriate administrative relief or guidance regarding paper filing versus e-filing access for Pro Se Litigants.

Respectfully Submitted

Anthony G. Bryant Appellant Pro Se

RE: Corrected Closing Letter
Complaint No. C26-06448
United States Postal Inspection Service

Dear Anthony Bryant:

Thank you for bringing your concerns to the attention of this Department. Please note that the previous closing letter that you received was a form letter that was not updated with the correct salutation information. This closing letter is related specifically to your concerns related to the United States Postal Inspection Service. For your convenience I have attached a copy of the letter that our office received from you.

The South Carolina Consumer Protection Code authorizes this Department to process complaints from consumers who purchase goods or services for family, personal or household use. A transaction entered to make money or for some other business purpose is not a consumer purpose, even if the individual must sign a personal guaranty agreement.

After reviewing the information you submitted, it appears that your complaint is not a consumer transaction as defined by South Carolina law. The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs is unable to assist with complaints regarding another government entity. This letter is to notify you that your complaint has been closed as information. Our office suggests that you consult a private attorney for further assistance in resolving this matter.

We appreciate your patience during the evaluation of the information you provided.

Best Regards,

Mandy Self

Re: Proposed Filing
Anthony G. Bryant v. Dominion Energy of South Carolina
SC: Charleston County Circuit Court
2025 CP 10-05617

Dear Mr. Bryant:

This acknowledges receipt of your proposed filing with respect to the above-referenced matter. Please be advised that this court has jurisdiction over matters appealed from federal district courts within our circuit, original proceedings arising from federal district courts within our circuit, and appeals from certain federal agencies. A search of this court's docket and the dockets of the federal district courts in this circuit does not reveal a past or pending matter to which your document might attach. Accordingly, no further action will be taken with respect to your proposed filing and your paperwork is returned.

Sincerely,

Mark E. O'Brien

RE: Bryant v. AT&T, Application to Vacate Injunction
USCA4 No. 23-2056

Dear Mr. Bryant:

Your application that was received August 25, 2026 is herewith returned for the following reason(s):

The application is out of time. The date of the lower court judgment or order denying a timely motion for reconsideration was August 1, 2024. Therefore, the application and any interlocutory petition for a writ of certiorari were due on or before October 30, 2024. Rules 13.1, 29.2, and 30.1. When the time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari in a civil case has expired, the Court no longer has the power to review the petition or any related applications for stay or injunctive relief. See 28 U.S.C. 1651 and 2101(f).

Sincerely,
Scott S. Harris, Clerk
