Dear Mr. Grizzard,

Thank you for your follow-up regarding your September 28, 2026, request for the Transcript of Record in Grizzard v. McCormick Magistrate.

Please accept my apologies for the delay. Following my retirement in September, my work email was immediately disabled, which delayed my receipt of your request. I was notified of the oversight today.

I have reviewed my records and estimate the transcript will be approximately 12 pages. Per Rule 607, the standard rate is $4.25 per page, making the total estimated cost $51.00.

To proceed, please mail a cashier's check or money order for $51.00 payable to me at:

Tara Scott
1849 Stevenson Road
Abbeville, SC 29620

Once payment is received, your request will be placed in the queue for typing. If the final transcript is fewer than 12 pages, I will refund the difference upon delivery. If it exceeds 12 pages, the remaining balance will be due upon delivery.

While the rules allow up to 60 days to complete a transcript, I will take your original request date into account to process this as quickly as possible. If you no longer wish to pursue this request, no further action is required. I will also notify you upon my receipt of payment.

Please feel free to contact me by email if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Tara Scott, CVR

Dear Mr. Grizzard,

Thank you. I will look out for your check and confirm once it arrives.

Could you also please confirm if this is the correct email address to send the completed PDF transcript to once it is ready?

Best regards,

Tara
