RE: State v. Altariq J. Cole – Appellate Case No. 2025-000767

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The above-referenced criminal appeal is currently pending before this Court. On October 27, 2026, the State properly served and filed its Initial Brief of Respondent and Designation of Matter. However, the State mistakenly indicated in its proof of service that the brief and designation were served on the wrong opposing counsel.

To correct its mistake with the original proof of service, the State now respectfully moves for this Court to allow it to file an amended proof of service accurately reflecting the appellant's correct counsel was served with the State's brief and designation, and the State further respectfully asks this Court to please accept this letter in lieu of a formal motion.

Prior to making this motion, the State contacted the appellant's counsel, who confirmed she has no objections to the State's request to file the amended proof of service and has already received the State's brief and designation.

Thank you very much, and, if you have any questions or concerns or if a more formal motion is needed, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ambree M. Muller
