

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Crescent Roofing & Remodeling, LLC, Respondent, v.

Eric Ragsdale, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2024-000420

ORDER

On June 9, 2026, this court ordered Appellant to provide proof of service of the record on appeal on Respondent within twenty days. Appellant then filed a motion for clarification, which this court granted on August 11, 2026, explaining that although Appellant indicated Respondent and this court were served with the record on appeal in June 2024,¹ the record on appeal must include all matters designated by the parties; the order also provided 10 days for Appellant to file proof of service of the record on appeal. Appellant then indicated he served the record on appeal on September 22, 2025—four days after Respondent filed its designation of matter. On September 29, 2026, Respondent filed its third motion to dismiss on the basis Appellant had, through "willful disobedience and gross indifference," failed to comply with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules or this court's orders during the pendency of this case. Respondent's September 29, 2026 motion explained that it had not received the record on appeal. On October 2, 2026, Appellant filed a record on appeal and his final brief. On October 6, 2026, Respondent filed a supplemental memorandum in support of its motion to dismiss, explaining the record on appeal was missing matter Respondent designated and that Appellant's brief had been rewritten from his initial brief. Appellant filed a return, and Respondent filed a reply.

After careful consideration, we dismiss the appeal on the basis Appellant has failed to comply with Rule 210 and 211 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

¹ It appears what was served in June 2024 was the transcript from the court reporter.

See Rule 210(c), SCACR ("The Record on Appeal shall include all matter designated to be included by any party under Rule 209 and shall comply with the requirements of Rule 267."); Rule 211(b)(1) & (2), SCACR ("The final brief(s) shall be identical to the brief(s) previously served under Rule 208, except for the following: (1) . . . The references in the initial brief shall be revised to indicate where the material appears in the Record on Appeal. . . . [and] (2) . . . The party may correct obvious typographical errors and misspellings which were contained in the initial brief. No other changes may be made."). The remittitur will be sent as required by Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
